LEXINGTON, LAFAYETTE COUNTY, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 1919.

NUMBER 11.

COUNTY SERVICE FLAG

to be Placed in the State mory to be Kept For All Time.

resolution has recently passed by the legislature asking that each county in the state prepare a County Service Flag and present it to the State to be placed in the Armory at the State Capitol and kept there permanently. The resolution provides further that the County Superintendent of Schools in each county direct and have charge of the preparation and presentation of this flag. It also provides that a public meeting be held at the Capitol with appropriate ceremonies for presenting and receiving same, the meeting to be held sometime during the County Superintendents' Convention, April 22-25 inclusive.

Supt. Elmer H. White has already started on this task by asking each teacher in the county, through a circular letter, to send him a list of all men in service who went from their respective districts, whether in the army, navy or marines.
Casualties are to be reported separate. No doubt the rural districts will readily send Supt.
White the desired information, but a great many men joined the colors from the towns of Lafayette county, hence you will be doing a patriotic deed to report your friend or relative who served Uncle Sam in the past war. Report to Supt. White, at the court house. In addition to reporting the men in service you might report the number of ladies who went with the Red Cross.

To the Memory of Mrs. Eliza- beth Bell.

A dear one from us has gone,
A sister kind and true One who was always willing to do

All that she could do,
Each month that we met
There was a vacant chair
But her spirit always followed us With a kind and fervent prayer.

We did not know the pain she had

Although we saw her die
We only knew she passed away,
And never said Good Bye.
Her face is not forgotten, Her voice is ringing still She is happy with the Angels, But left a place no one can fill.

And now that she has left us
For her heavenly home above, We will all follow her With our sweetest thoughts of love.

She has gone to her reward, Where the father stands to greet her,
And by holding fast to faith,
We all sometime will meet her.
